FROM

LESLIE C. COLEMAN, ESQ., M.A., PH.D.,

DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE IN MYSORE,

BANGALORE.

TO The Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
Depts. of Agriculture, etc., Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain orders of Government in the matter of exempting the undermentioned officers of this Department from the operation of Sections 8, 9, 10 and 11 of the Mysore Arms Regulation of 1890 and including the same in the rules framed under the Arms Regulation as notified in No. J. X 1782 - Police Mis. 65, dated 26-12-05. As the officers of this Department also are touring about very frequently and have to expose themselves to dangers from wild beasts etc., similarly to those officers of the various Departments of the State who are exempted as per rule 1, 12 to 19, I think it is necessary that the staff of this Department should be exempted from the Mysore Arms Regulation for their self protection
